SCC ARBITRAL AWARDS
1999 – 2003

Sigvard Jarvin
and
Annette Magnusson
EDITORS

JurisNet
This volume of SCC Arbitral Awards contains all awards from the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce (SCC Institute) that have been previously published in the Stockholm Arbitration Report (SAR) between 1999 and 2003.

The awards and the observations are reproduced as they were first published in SAR. Hence, if new editions of literature referred to have been published, new precedents have been decided, or if the personal details of an author has changed since the original publication, these are not reflected in this publication.

Sigvard Jarvin
Annette Magnusson
FOREWORD ........................................................................................................... iii

I. SCC CASE 17/1997 ......................................................................................... 1

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Jurisdiction; interpretation of contract under Swedish law.
(2) Validity of assignment and the right of assumed assignee [Claimant] to rely on the arbitration clause.
(3) Can a third party beneficiary rely on the arbitration clause in an agreement to which it is not a party?
(4) Reduction of the claimed legal expenses.

Observations By John Kadelburger................................................................. 17

II. SCC CASE 19/1997 ..................................................................................... 29

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Is “the Arbitration Court in Stockholm” a reference to ad hoc or institutional arbitration?
(2) Refusal by a party to participate in the proceedings.
(3) Value added tax on the arbitrators’ fee.

Observations by Guillermo Aguilar Alvarez ............................................. 46

III. SCC CASE 99/1997 ..................................................................................... 49

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Conformity of delivered goods (quality complaints).
(2) May prolongation of the delivery term in the issued letter of credit beyond the dates stated in the contract be interpreted as extension granted to the seller for delivery?
(3) Who is to bear the costs of arbitration as between the parties, when both parties’ claims were satisfied in part?

Observations by Sarah François-Poncet..................................................... 58
IV. SCC CASE 104/1997 ................................................................. 63

subject-matters:
(1) Bankruptcy of Respondent during the arbitration. Non-binding effect of the award under Finnish law.
(2) Discontinuance of the arbitration.

Observations by Sigvard Jarvin ................................................. 65
Observations by Carita Wallgren & Bernt Juthström .............. 68

V. SCC CASE 107/1997 ................................................................. 71

subject-matters:
(1) Applicable law.
(2) Contradictory provisions in the contract regarding technical specifications. Non-conformity of goods delivered.
(3) Contractual provision depriving the buyer of its remedies against the seller's breach of contract.
(4) The Vienna Sales Convention, article 74, and right to set-off.

Observations by Ivan Zykin ...................................................... 88

VI. SCC CASE 108/1997 ................................................................. 91

subject-matters:
(1) Law applicable to the obligation to arbitrate.
(2) Whether, because of its conduct, a parent company is considered party to an arbitration agreement concluded by its subsidiary.
(3) Liability for arbitration costs in a parallel arbitration.

Observations by Michael S. Walker ................................. 104
VII. SCC CASE 16/1998 ................................................................. 111

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Trading in Russian securities; failure by trader to comply with client’s instructions; client’s identity and validity of instructions questioned.
(2) Does deposit of securities with a public notary constitute discharge under Article 327 of the Russian Civil Code?
(3) Applicable law: Russian or Swedish?
(4) Does a penalty clause relating to late payment apply in lieu of or in addition to default interest provisions under Swedish law?

Observations by John Kadelburger................................. 127

VIII. SCC CASE 34/1998 ................................................................. 133

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Ex parte award.
(2) Law applicable to the interest rate; What rate applies if the banking rate relied upon “presently varies between 13 and 18 percent”?
(3) Claimed legal expenses reduced.

Observations by Ivan Zykin................................................. 141

IX. SCC CASE 36/1998 ................................................................. 147

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) No oral hearing held.
(2) Interest rate on overdue payment; New York law and force majeure; Starting point for calculating interest on overdue amount.
(3) Moratorium decreed by the Central Bank of Russia.
(4) Reduction of attorneys fees.

Observations by Gerald Aksen ................................................. 163

X. SCC CASE 53/1998 ................................................................. 165

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Arbitrability of tax issues.
(2) Liability to compensate for VAT for services rendered by a foreign company on Russian territory.
(3) Interest rate: alternative claims regarding the accrual dates.

Observations by Alexey Kostin ................................................. 174

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Applicable choice-of-law rules to determine the governing law in a sale of goods contract.
(2) Applicable law to the arbitration agreement.

Observations by David Goldberg.............................................. 195

XII. SCC CASE 21/1999 ................................................................. 203

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Claimants’ legal capacity and proper representation; whether a consortium is a party.
(2) Whether the arbitral tribunal has jurisdiction to consider the case on its merits when, in accordance with the arbitration clause, adjudication shall precede arbitration.

Observations by M.I.M. Aboul-Enein....................................... 237

XIII. SCC CASE 34/1999 ................................................................. 241

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Introduction of a new party in the arbitration. The seller requested to introduce as party the manufacturer of the goods who had signed a modification to the agreement, but not the original agreement.
(2) Availability of separate award and dissenting opinion under the SCC Rules.
(3) Applicable law. Whether a stipulation in the contract takes over the CISG.

Observations by Alain Prujiner ....................................... 259
Observations by Christophe Imhoos ................................. 268

XIV. SCC CASE 46/1999 ................................................................. 279

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Applicable law for deciding the arbitrators’ competence.
(2) Does an arbitration agreement between a creditor and a debtor extend to a pledgee to whom the creditor has pledged its claims?

Observations by David St. John Sutton ............................... 291
Observations by Annette Magnusson ................................. 298

XV. SCC CASE 117/1999 ............................................................... 305

SUBJECT-MATTER:
Applicable law to the dispute; application of Article 24(1) of the Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce.

Observations by Herbert Kronke ............................... 314
Observations by Juan Fernández-Armesto .......................... 320

XVI. SCC CASE 16/2000 ................................................................. 335

SUBJECT-MATERS:
(1) Whether a contract for the packing and transport of industrial equipment provided for a fixed or variable price.
(2) When the freight increases due to an increase in the volume of the cargo, who shall bear the risk for such increase?
(3) Duty of a carrier to notify the customer in the event of expected increase of costs for the transportation.

Observations by Patrik Lindfors & Mika Savola .................... 353
Observations by Jakob Heidbrink............................................. 367

XVII. SCC CASE 45/2000 .............................................................. 377

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Invalidity of a contract under the Swedish doctrine of assumptions (förutsättningsläran).
(2) Liability for damages following the invalidity of a contract by virtue of the doctrine of assumptions.

Observations by Gustaf Möller ........................................ 406
Observations by Jan Ramberg ......................................... 411

XVIII. SCC CASE 49/2000 .............................................................. 417

SUBJECT-MATTER:
Issue of lis pendens.

Observations by Bruno Leurent............................................. 425

XIX. SCC CASE 129/2000 ............................................................ 431

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Party succession and choice of applicable law to decide who are the parties to the agreement.
(2) Choice of applicable law to decide the costs.

Observations by Carita Wallgren & Helle Lindegaard.............................. 442
Observations by Eric M. Runesson & Mikael Swahn............................... 453
XX. SCC CASE 133/2000 ............................................................... 461

SUBJECT-MATTER:
(1) Ambiguous arbitration clause.
Observations by Alexey Kostin ........................................... 471

XXI. SCC CASE 7/2001 ............................................................. 475

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Letter of credit and unjust enrichment – whether the purchaser had fulfilled its obligations concerning payment under the contract by obtaining the letter of credit.
(2) Invalidity of contract – whether the contract was duly signed and dealt with past events.
(3) Calculation of interest.
Observations by Michael Pryles ........................................ 495
Observation by Jon Stokholm ............................................. 501

XXII. SCC CASE 9/2001 ........................................................... 505

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Bringing a third party into the arbitration proceedings.
(2) Admissibility of a claim of alleged fraud.
Observations by Bernard Hanotiau ..................................... 518

XXIII. SCC CASE 45/2001 ......................................................... 525

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Ex parte award.
(2) Jurisdiction of the arbitrator over the end user where the contract had been signed by the end user’s agent. Applicable law to decide this issue.
Observations by Xing Xiusong & He Xiaoli ......................... 537
XXIV. SCC CASE 96/2001 .............................................................. 543

SUBJECT-MATTERS:
(1) Power of the Arbitral Tribunal to grant interim measures under the SCC Rules.
(2) Applicable law to the merits and to a retention of title clause.
(3) Enforcement of retention of title clause under Uzbek law.
(4) Right to restitution of delivered goods under Uzbek law.

Observations by Fernando Pombo........................................ 557

INDEX ................................................................................................. 563