WEB SITE

The World Arbitration and Mediation Review (WAMR) is available on the internet at www.cailaw.org/ita-wamr and through its Publisher, Juris Publishing, at www.jurispub.com. WAMR’s web sites are valuable resources that include information supplementary and complementary to the journal, as well as helpful links to other organizations and products.

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS

The World Arbitration and Mediation Review actively seeks articles, comments and case notes of high quality addressing current issues in international arbitration and mediation. Manuscripts should be submitted to the Managing Editor, accompanied by an assurance that the article has not been previously published or accepted elsewhere, or an explanation as to how this submission differs from that previously published (e.g., entails an excerpt from a previous publication or includes material not previously included).

Authors are requested to submit all manuscripts by email correspondence to the Managing Editor at LHarhay@cailaw.org. No hard copy is required. Manuscripts should be in a recent version of Word for Windows and range from 15-30 pages in length, with 1.5 line spacing. For further specifications, authors are invited to contact the Managing Editor to request WAMR’s style sheet, or can obtain this and other information at www.cailaw.org/ita-wamr.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

A subscription to the World Arbitration and Mediation Review comprises four (4) issues per year, including one (1) issue providing the transcripts and commentary from the Institute for Transnational Arbitration’s Workshop held annually in Dallas. Subscription rates can be obtained and registration completed through Juris Publishing, at subscriptions@jurispub.com. Previous issues of WAMR can also be obtained through Juris Publishing.
