Part Two – ARBITRATION IN THE REPUBLIC OF CROATIA

Chapter One – General provisions

Arbitrability

Article 3

- (1) Parties may agree on domestic arbitration for the settlement of disputes regarding rights of which they may freely dispose.
- (2) In disputes with an international element, parties may also agree on arbitration outside the territory of the Republic of Croatia, unless it is provided by law that such a dispute may be subject only to the jurisdiction of a court in the Republic of Croatia.
- (3) Parties may agree to submit the disputes referred to in paragraph 1 of this article to arbitration, regardless of whether or not the arbitration is administered by an arbitral institution.

Receipt of written communications

Article 4

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, any written communication shall be deemed to have been delivered on the day when it is delivered to the mailing address of the addressee or to the person designated to receive written communications.
- (2) Mailing address is the address at which the addressee regularly receives mail. If the addressee has not expressly defined any other address or if the circumstances of the case do not indicate otherwise, the mailing address shall be the address of the seat or the branch office of the addressee, his habitual residence or the address referred to in the main contract or in the arbitration agreement.
- (3) If none of the addresses referred to in paragraph 2 of this article is known, a written communication shall be deemed to have been served on the day when its delivery has been attempted to the last known address, provided it has been properly forwarded by registered mail with return receipt or in any other way that can provide evidence of attempted delivery.
- (4) A written communication shall be deemed to have been served if the addressee to whom delivery was attempted in the above described manner refuses to receive it.
- (5) Provisions of paragraph 1 of this article shall not apply to delivery of communications in court proceedings.

Waiver of the right to object

Article 5

A party who knew or should have known that any provision of this Law from which the parties may derogate or any requirement under the arbitration agreement has not been complied with and yet proceeded with the arbitration without stating his objection to such non-compliance without undue delay or, if a time limit is provided therefore, within such period of time, shall be deemed to have waived his right to object.

Chapter Two – ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

Arbitration agreement - definition, form and applicable law

Article 6

- (1) An arbitration agreement is an agreement of the parties to submit to arbitration all or certain disputes that have arisen or that may arise in the future between them in respect of a defined legal relationship of a contractual or non-contractual nature. An arbitration agreement may be concluded in the form of an arbitration clause in a contract or in the form of a separate arbitration agreement.

- (2) The arbitration agreement shall be in writing. An agreement is in writing if it is contained in documents signed by the parties or in an exchange of letters, telex, faxes, telegrams or other means of telecommunication that provide a record of the agreement, whether signed by the parties or not.
- (3) It is considered that an arbitration agreement shall be deemed to be concluded in writing if:
 - 1) it is contained in one party's written offer, or if a third party transmitted to both parties such an offer, provided that against such offer no objection was timely raised, and such failure to object, according to usages in transactions of the same nature, may be considered to constitute acceptance of the offer,
 - 2) after an orally concluded arbitration agreement, a party communicates to the other a written communication, referring to the arbitration agreement concluded earlier orally, and the other party fails to object timely, and such failure, according to usages in transactions of the same nature, may be considered to constitute acceptance of the offer.
- (4) The reference in a contract to a document containing an arbitration clause (general terms of a contract, text of other agreement or similar) constitutes an arbitration agreement provided that the reference is such as to make that clause part of the contract.
- (5) An arbitration agreement may also be concluded by the issuance of a bill of lading, if the bill of lading contains an express reference to an arbitration clause in a charter party.
- (6) Notwithstanding the provisions of Arts. 1-5 of this Law, if a dispute has arisen or could arise out of a consumer contract, the arbitration agreement must be contained in a separate document signed by both parties. In such a document no agreements may be contained other than those referring to the arbitral proceedings, except if the document was drawn up by a notary public.
- (7) The law applicable to the validity of an arbitration agreement ratione materiae is the law designated by the parties. If the parties failed to designate such applicable law, the applicable law will be the law applicable to the substance of the dispute or the law of the Republic of Croatia.
- (8) An arbitration agreement shall be deemed to be valid if the claimant files the statement of claim to arbitration and the respondent fails to object to the jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal at the latest in his statement of defense in which he raised issues related to the substance of the dispute.

Capacity of the parties

Article 7

- (1) Capacity of natural and legal persons and other entities to conclude an arbitration agreement and be parties to an arbitration dispute is governed by the law that is applicable to them.
- (2) Citizens of the Republic of Croatia and legal persons of Croatian Law, including the Republic of Croatia and units of local and regional self-government, may conclude arbitration agreements and be parties to arbitration.

Power of attorney for the conclusion of an arbitration agreement

Article 8

If the validity of a power of attorney is governed by Croatian law, the authority to conclude the main contract implies an authority to conclude an arbitration agreement.

Chapter Three – ARBITRAL TRIBUNAL

Number of arbitrators

Article 9

If the parties have not agreed otherwise, three arbitrators shall be appointed.

Appointment of arbitrators

Article 10

- (1) No person shall be precluded by reason of his nationality from acting as an arbitrator, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.
- (2) Judges of Croatian courts may only be appointed as presiding arbitrators or as sole arbitrators.
- (3) Parties are free to agree on the procedure of appointing the arbitrator or arbitrators, subject to the provisions of paragraphs 4 and 5 of this article.
- (4) Failing such agreement,
 - 1) in an arbitration with three arbitrators, each party shall appoint one arbitrator, and the two arbitrators thus appointed shall appoint the third arbitrator as presiding arbitrator. If a party fails to appoint an arbitrator or fails to inform the other party of this appointment within thirty days of the notice of appointment by the other party accompanied by a request to appoint an arbitrator, or if two arbitrators fail to agree on the third arbitrator within thirty days of the appointment of the last appointed of them, the appointment of the arbitrator shall be made, upon request of a party, by the appointing authority specified in Article 43, paragraph 3 of this Law;
 - 2) in an arbitration with a sole arbitrator, if the parties fail to agree on the arbitrator, such arbitrator shall be appointed, upon request of a party, by the appointing authority specified in Article 43, paragraph 3 of this Law.
- (5) Where, under an appointment procedure agreed by the parties,
 - 1) a party fails to act as required under such procedure, or
 - 2) the parties or arbitrators are unable to reach an agreement required of them under such procedure, or
 - 3) a third party, including an institution, fails to perform any function entrusted to it under such procedure, any party may request the appointment authority specified in Article 43, paragraph 3 of this Law to take the necessary measure, unless the agreement on the appointment procedure provides other means for securing the appointment.
- (6) The appointing authority specified in Article 43, paragraph 3 of this Law, in appointing an arbitrator, shall have due regard to any qualifications required of the arbitrator by the agreement of the parties and to such considerations as are likely to secure the appointment of an independent and impartial arbitrator, and, in a dispute with an international element, in the case of a sole or presiding arbitrator, shall take into account as well the advisability of appointing an arbitrator of a nationality other than those of the parties.
- (7) A decision on a matter that is, pursuant to paragraphs 3 or 4 of this article entrusted to the appointing authority specified in Article 43, paragraph 3 of this Law, shall not be subject to appeal.

Rights and duties of arbitrators

Article 11

- (1) An arbitrator must accept his appointment in writing. Such acceptance may be made by signing the arbitration agreement.
- (2) An arbitrator must conduct the arbitration with due expeditiousness and undertake measures on time in order to avoid any delay of the proceedings.

- (3) Unless agreed otherwise, the parties may discharge by their consent an arbitrator that fails to perform his duties, or does not perform them in a timely manner.
- (4) An arbitrator has the right to reimbursement of expenses and a fee for the work completed, unless he has waived these rights in writing. The parties shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of such expenses and fees.
- (5) If an arbitrator has determined the amount of his own expenses and fees, his decision does not bind the parties unless they accept it. If the parties do not accept this decision, the expenses and fees will be determined, upon request of an arbitrator or of a party, by the authority specified in Article 43, paragraph 3 of this Law. The decision made by such authority is a title for enforcement against the parties to the arbitral dispute.

Challenge of arbitrators

Article 12

- (1) When a person is approached in connection with his possible appointment as an arbitrator, he shall disclose any circumstances likely to give rise to justifiable doubts as to his independence or impartiality. An arbitrator, from the time of his appointment and throughout the arbitral proceedings, shall without delay disclose any such circumstances to the parties unless they have been previously informed of them by him.
- (2) An arbitrator may be challenged only if circumstances exist that give rise to justifiable doubts as to his independence or impartiality, or if the arbitrator does not possess qualifications agreed to by the parties or if he fails to fulfill his duties specified in Article 11, paragraph 2 of this Law.
- (3) A party may challenge an arbitrator appointed by him, or in whose appointment he has participated, only for reasons that occurred after the appointment or reasons of which he becomes aware after the appointment has been made.
- (4) The parties are free to agree on a procedure for challenging an arbitrator, subject to the provisions of paragraph 7 of this article.
- (5) Failing such agreement, a party who intends to challenge an arbitrator shall, within fifteen days after becoming aware of the appointment of the arbitrator or after becoming aware of any circumstances referred to in paragraph 2 of this article, send a written statement of the reasons for the challenge to the arbitral tribunal.
- (6) Unless the challenged arbitrator withdraws from his office or the other party agrees to the challenge, the arbitral court, including the arbitrator subject to the challenge, shall promptly decide on the challenge.
- (7) If a challenge under the procedure specified in paragraphs 4 and 6 of this article is not successful, the challenging party may, within thirty days after having received notice of the decision rejecting the challenge, or if the arbitral tribunal does not decide on the challenge within thirty days after the challenge was made, in a further thirty days from the moment of the expiration of the first thirty days, request from the appointing authority specified in Article 43, paragraph 3 of this Law to decide on the challenge. While such a request is pending, the arbitral tribunal, including the challenged arbitrator, may continue the arbitral proceedings and make an award.

Failure to perform arbitrator's duties

Article 13

- (1) If an arbitrator becomes de iure or de facto unable to perform his functions, and he withdraws from his office or the parties agree on the termination, his mandate shall be terminated. If a controversy remains concerning any of the grounds, any party may request the authority specified in Article 43, paragraph 3 of this Law to decide on the termination of the mandate.
- (2) If under this article or Article 12, paragraph 6, an arbitrator withdraws from his office or parties agree to terminate his mandate, this does not imply existence of any ground referred to in this article or Article 12, paragraph 2 of this Law.

Appointment of substitute arbitrator

Article 14

Where the mandate of an arbitrator terminates under Articles 12 or 13 of this Law, or because of his withdrawal from office for any other reason or because of the revocation of his mandate by agreement of the parties, or in any other case of termination of his mandate, a substitute arbitrator shall be appointed according to the rules that were applicable to the appointment of the arbitrator being replaced.

Jurisdiction of arbitral tribunal

Article 15

- (1) The arbitral tribunal may rule on its own jurisdiction, including any objections with respect to the existence or the validity of the arbitration agreement. For that purpose, an arbitration clause that forms part of a contract shall be treated as an agreement independent of the other terms of the contract. A decision by the arbitral tribunal that the contract is null and void shall not entail ipso iure the invalidity of the arbitration clause.
- (2) A plea that the arbitral tribunal does not have jurisdiction shall be raised not later than the submission of the statement of defense in which the respondent raised issues related to the substance of the dispute. A party is not precluded from raising such a plea by the fact that he has appointed or participated in the appointment of an arbitrator. A plea that the arbitral tribunal is exceeding the scope of its authority shall be made as soon as the matter alleged to be beyond the scope of its authority is raised during the arbitral proceedings. The arbitral tribunal may, in either case, admit a later plea if it considers the delay justified.
- (3) The arbitral tribunal may rule on a plea referred to in paragraph 2 of this article either as a preliminary question or in an award on the merits. If the arbitral tribunal rules as a preliminary question that it has jurisdiction, any party may request, within thirty days after having received notice of that ruling, the court specified in Article 43, paragraph 1 of this Law to decide the matter. While such a request is pending, the arbitral tribunal may continue the arbitral proceedings and make an award.
- (4) The court proceedings from paragraph 3 of this Article shall be urgent.

Interim measures in arbitral proceedings

Article 16

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the arbitral tribunal may, at the request of a party, order any party to take such interim measures of protection as the arbitral tribunal may consider necessary in respect of the subject-matter of the dispute. The arbitral tribunal may require any party to provide appropriate security in connection with such measure.
- (2) If a party to which interim measures relate does not agree to undertake them voluntarily, the party that made the motion for such measures may request their enforcement before the competent court

Chapter Four – ARBITRAL PROCEEDINGS

Equal treatment of parties

Article 17

- (1) The parties to proceedings before an arbitral tribunal shall be treated equally.
- (2) The parties shall have the right to respond to statements and claims of their adversary.
- (3) For the purpose of compliance with the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article, arbitrators shall, to the extent necessary and possible, attempt to disclose to the parties their opinions and give appropriate explanations in order to evaluate all relevant factual and legal issues.

Rules of procedureArticle 18

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Law, parties are free to agree, directly or by reference to any established set of rules, a statute or in other appropriate manner, the procedure to be followed by the arbitral tribunal in the conduct of the proceedings.
- (2) Failing such agreement, the arbitral tribunal may, subject to the provisions of this Law, conduct the arbitration in such manner as it considers appropriate. The power conferred upon the arbitral tribunal includes the power to determine the rules of procedure either directly or by reference to a set of rules, a statute or in other appropriate manner, and the power to determine the admissibility, relevance and weight of any evidence.

Place of arbitrationArticle 19

- (1) The parties are free to agree on the place of arbitration.
- (2) Failing such agreement, the place of arbitration will be determined by the arbitral tribunal having regard to the circumstances of the case, including the convenience for the parties.
- (3) If the place of arbitration is not determined pursuant to paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article, the place of arbitration shall be deemed to be the place designated in the award as the place where the award was made.
- (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1 and 2 of this article, the arbitral tribunal may, unless otherwise agreed by the parties, meet at any place it considers appropriate for consultation among its members, for hearing witnesses, experts or the parties, or for inspection of goods or documents.

Commencement of arbitral proceedingsArticle 20

LanguageArticle 21.

- (1) The parties are free to agree on the language or languages to be used in the arbitral proceedings. Failing such agreement, the arbitral tribunal shall determine the language or languages to be used in the proceedings. This agreement or determination by the arbitral tribunal, unless otherwise specified therein, shall apply to any written statement by a party, any hearing and any award, decision or other communication by the arbitral tribunal.
- (2) The arbitral tribunal may order that any documentary evidence shall be accompanied by translation into the language or languages agreed upon by the parties or determined by the arbitral tribunal.
- (3) Until the language of the proceedings has been determined, a claim, a defense and other deeds can be submitted in the language of the main contract, of the arbitration agreement or in the Croatian language.

Statements of claim and defenseArticle 22

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the claimant shall in his statement of claim state the facts supporting his claim, the points at issue and relief or remedy sought, and the respondent shall in his statement of defense state his defense in respect of the claimant's statements, proposals and claims. The parties may submit with their statements all documents they consider to be relevant or may add a reference to the documents or other evidence they will submit.
- (2) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, either party may amend or supplement his claim or defense during the course of the arbitral proceedings, unless the arbitral tribunal considers it inappropriate to allow such amendment having regard to the delay in making it.

Hearings and written proceedingsArticle 23

- (1) Subject to any contrary agreement by the parties, the arbitral tribunal shall decide whether to schedule and hold oral hearings for the presentation of evidence or for oral argument, or whether the proceedings shall be conducted on the basis of documents.
- (2) Unless the parties have agreed that no hearings shall be held, the arbitral tribunal shall hold such hearings at an appropriate stage of the proceedings, if so requested by a party.
- (3) The parties shall be given sufficient advance notice of any hearing and of any meeting of the arbitral tribunal for the purpose of inspection of goods, other property or documents.
- (4) All statements, documents or other information supplied to the arbitral tribunal by one party shall be communicated to the other party. Any expert report or evidentiary document on which the arbitral tribunal may rely in making its decision shall be communicated to each of the parties.

- 2) the respondent fails to communicate his statement of defense in accordance with Article 22, paragraph 1 of this Law, the arbitral tribunal shall continue the proceedings without treating such failure in itself as an admission of the claimant's allegations;
- 3) any party fails to appear at a hearing or to produce documentary evidence within the time limit provided for their production, the arbitral tribunal may continue the proceedings and make the award on the evidence before it.

WitnessesArticle 25

- (2) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, if a party so requests or if the arbitral tribunal considers it necessary, the expert shall, after delivery of his written or oral report, participate in a hearing where the parties shall have the opportunity to put questions to him and to present other expert witnesses in order to testify on the points at issue.
- (3) The provisions of Article 12, paragraphs 1 to 6 of this Law, will appropriately apply to the challenge of experts.

Chapter Five – AWARD AND TERMINATION OF PROCEEDINGS*Applicable lawArticle 27*

- (1) The arbitral tribunal shall decide the dispute in accordance with such rules of law as are chosen by the parties as applicable to the substance of the dispute. Any designation of the law or legal system of a given state shall be construed, unless otherwise expressed, as directly referring to the substantive law of that State and not to its conflict of laws rules.
- (2) Failing any designation by the parties under paragraph 1 of this article, the arbitral tribunal shall apply the law that it considers to be most closely connected with the dispute.
- (3) The arbitral tribunal shall decide ex aequo et bono or en qualité d'amiable compositeur only if the parties have expressly authorized it to do so.

- (3) Outside joint sessions of the arbitral tribunal, questions of procedure may be decided by a presiding arbitrator, unless the parties or all members of the arbitral tribunal have not agreed otherwise.
- (4) The panel of arbitrators may entrust to one of its members to undertake certain fact-finding activities.

- (2) The arbitral tribunal shall upon the request of the parties record the settlement in the form of an arbitral award, unless it finds that its content violates the public order of the Republic of Croatia.

Award

Article 30

- (2) The award shall be made in the place of arbitration (Article 19 of this Law).
- (3) The award shall be made in writing. It shall state the reasons upon which it is based, unless the parties have agreed that no reasons are to be given or if the award is an award on agreed terms under Article 29 of this Law.
- (4) The date when the award was made and place where it was made shall be stated in the award pursuant to Article 19, paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Law and paragraph 2 of this article.
- (5) The original of the award and all copies thereof shall be signed by the sole arbitrator or all members of the panel of arbitrators. The award shall be valid even if some arbitrators failed to sign it, provided that it was signed by the majority of all members of the arbitral tribunal, and that the omission of a signature or signatures is stated in the award.
- (6) The awards made in an institutional arbitration shall be served upon the parties by the arbitral institution. In all other cases, the service of the award to the parties shall be made by the arbitral tribunal.
- (7) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the service of the award shall be made pursuant to provisions of Article 4 of this Law. If both parties so request, service of the award may be carried out by the court designated in Article 43, paragraph 5 or by a notary public.

Legal effect of the award

Article 31

The award of the arbitral tribunal shall have, in respect of the parties, the force of a final judgment (res iudicata), unless the parties have expressly agreed that the award may be contested by an arbitral tribunal of a higher instance.

Termination of the proceedings

Article 32

- (1) The arbitral proceedings are terminated by the final award or by an order of the arbitral tribunal, if:
 - 1) the claimant withdraws his claim, unless the respondent objects thereto and the arbitral tribunal recognizes a legitimate interest on his part in obtaining a final award in the dispute;
 - 2) the parties agree on the termination of the proceedings;
 - 3) the arbitral tribunal finds that the continuation of the proceedings has for any other reason become unnecessary or impossible.
- (2) The mandate of the arbitral tribunal terminates with the termination of the arbitral proceedings, subject to the provisions of the articles 33, 34, 35(3), 36(4) and 37 of this Law. In such cases, the tribunal's mandate will be terminated when the respective decision is rendered.

Additional award

Article 33

 - 1) a party, upon the notice to the other party, may request the arbitral tribunal to correct any errors in the computation of the award, any clerical or typographical errors or any error of similar nature;
 - 2) if so agreed by the parties, a party, with notice to the other party, may request the arbitral tribunal to give an interpretation of a specific point or part of the award.
- (2) If the arbitral tribunal considers the request to be justified, it shall make the correction or give the interpretation, which shall form part of the award.
- (3) The arbitral tribunal may correct any error of the type referred to in paragraph 1, subparagraph 1 of this article on its own initiative within thirty days of the date of the award.
- (4) The provisions of article 30 of this Law shall also apply to a correction or interpretation of an award.

Decision on costs

Article 35

- (1) Upon a request by a party, the arbitral tribunal shall determine in the award or an order for the termination of the arbitral proceedings which party and in which proportion has to reimburse the other party the necessary costs of arbitration, including expenses of party representation and the fees of arbitrators, and/or has to bear its own expenses.
- (2) The arbitral tribunal shall decide on the costs of the proceedings according to its free evaluation, taking into account all circumstances of the case, especially the outcome of the dispute.
- (3) If the arbitral tribunal fails to decide on costs of proceedings, or if such decision is possible only after termination of the arbitral proceedings, the arbitral tribunal will make a separate award on the costs of proceedings.

Chapter Six – LEGAL REMEDY AGAINST THE AWARD

Application for setting aside

Article 36

- (1) An arbitral award may be contested by an application for setting aside in accordance with the provisions of this article. Recourse against an interim award may be made only in an application to set aside the award in which the claim in respect of which the interim award was made was finally settled. No other legal remedies in court jurisdiction are permitted.
- (2) An arbitral award may be set aside by the court specified in Article 43, paragraph 1 of this Law only if:
 - 1) the party making the application furnishes proof that:
 - a) there was no agreement to arbitrate pursuant to Article 6 of this Law, or such agreement was not valid;
 - b) a party to the arbitration agreement was incapable of concluding the arbitration agreement or to be a party to an arbitration dispute (Article 7) or that a party was not duly represented;

- c) the party making the application for setting aside was not given proper notice of the commencement of the arbitral proceedings or was otherwise unable to present his case before the arbitral tribunal;
 - d) the award deals with a dispute not contemplated by or not falling within the terms of the submission to arbitration, or contains decisions on matters beyond the scope of the submission to arbitration, provided that, if the decision on matters submitted to arbitration can be separated from those not so submitted, only that part of the award that contains decisions on matters not submitted to arbitration may be set aside; or
 - e) the composition of the arbitral tribunal or the arbitral procedure was not in accordance with this Law or a permissible agreement of the parties and that fact could have influenced the content of the award; or
 - f) the award has no reasons or has not been signed in accordance with the provisions of Article 30, paragraphs 3 and 5 of this Law; or
- 2) the court finds, even if a party has not raised these grounds, that:
- a) the subject matter of the dispute is not capable of settlement by arbitration under the laws of the Republic of Croatia; or
 - b) the award is in conflict with the public policy of the Republic of Croatia.
- (3) An application for setting aside may not be made after three months have elapsed from the date on which the party making that application received the award or, if the application is made in a case under Arts. 33 or 34 of this Law, from the date on which the party making that application received the decision of the arbitral tribunal on either of the requests referred to in those articles.
- (4) The court, when asked to set aside an award, may, where appropriate and so requested by a party, suspend the setting aside proceedings for a period of time determined by it in order to give the arbitral tribunal an opportunity to resume the arbitral proceedings or to take such other actions as in the arbitral tribunal's opinion could eliminate the grounds for setting aside.
- (5) If the parties in a dispute expressly so agree in the arbitration agreement, an application against the arbitral award may also be made on the grounds that the party applying for setting aside found new facts or has the opportunity to present new evidence on the basis of which an award more favorable to him could have been made if these facts would have been known or evidence produced in the hearings that preceded the making of the challenged award. This ground may be raised only if the applying party could not have used them in the arbitration proceedings for reasons that were not his fault.
- (6) The parties cannot derogate in advance their right to contest the award by an application for setting aside.

Arbitration agreement after setting aside the award

Article 37

- (1) If an award made on the basis of a valid arbitration agreement not specifying the names of the arbitrators, has been set aside on the grounds other than those related to existence or validity of the arbitration agreement, such arbitration agreement shall be a valid legal basis for new arbitration in the same dispute. In case of doubt, upon request by a party, the court may issue a separate ruling to this effect.
- (2) Upon a request by a party, when the court asked to set aside an award finds it possible and appropriate, it shall, after setting aside, refer the case to the arbitral tribunal for reconsideration.

- (4) If a party to an arbitral dispute has a legal interest in a determination that no reasons for setting aside referred to in Article 36 paragraph 2 subparagraph 2 of this Law exist, it may request a decision on this issue from the court referred to in Article 43. of this Law.

Recognition and enforcement of a foreign award

Article 40
