This is the seventh edition of the Baker & McKenzie International Arbitration Yearbook, an annual series established by the Firm in 2007. This collection of articles comprises reports in key jurisdictions around the globe on arbitration. Leading lawyers of the Firm's International Arbitration Practice Group, a division of the Firm's Global Dispute Resolution Practice Group, report on recent developments in national laws relating to arbitration and address current arbitral trends and tendencies in the jurisdictions in which they practice.

For this 2013-2014 edition, the topic of Section C of each chapter is the regulation of counsel conduct in international arbitration. Each jurisdiction examines the relationship between its rules and practice in this regard and the new IBA Guidelines on Party Representation.

The aim of this Yearbook is to highlight the more important recent developments in international arbitration, without aspiring to be an exhaustive case reporter or a text-book on arbitration in the broad sense. It is hoped that this volume will prove a useful tool for those contemplating and using arbitration to resolve international business disputes.
