MISSION STATEMENT

Stockholm Arbitration Report illustrates the development of the international arbitral process, the enforcement of arbitral awards and the use of legal norms in the settlement of, primarily commercial transnational, disputes. By contributing to the scholarly debate on international arbitration, Stockholm Arbitration Report seeks to advance ideas which will improve the knowledge and the functioning of the international arbitral process.

Emphasis is placed on the publication of extracts of arbitral awards and court decisions with in-depth comments by scholars and practitioners. The approach shall be comparative, articles and comments be reasoned and explanatory, accessible also to non-specialists.

Contributions in the Stockholm Arbitration Report shall be published in the languages currently used in international arbitration.

Цели сборника

Сборник Stockholm Arbitration Report содержит материалы о развитии международного арбитражного процесса, исполнении арбитражных решений и использовании правовых норм в урегулировании, в первую очередь, международных коммерческих споров. Сборник Stockholm Arbitration Report, способствуя развитию научной дискуссии о международном арбитраже, направлен на распространение идей, повышающих уровень знаний и совершенствующих функционирование международного арбитражного процесса.

Акцент делается на публикации отрывков арбитражных и судебных решений в сопровождении подробных комментариев ученых и практикующих юристов. Материалы сборника предполагают использование сравнительного метода, статьи и комментарии должны быть аргументированными, содержать развернутые пояснения, доступные для понимания неспециалистов.

Материалы сборника Stockholm Arbitration Report должны быть составлены на языках, используемых в настоящее время в международных арбитражных разбирательствах.

Separate Arbitral Award rendered in 2001 in SCC case 74/2000 147

Subject-Matters:

- (1) Transfer of arbitration agreement. The meaning of an “express written consent” where the contract provides that assignment of the agreement or any part thereof requires the consent of the other party.
- (2) Validity of an arbitration clause under which one of the parties only had the right of choice to file its claims either before an arbitral tribunal or before a national court, and the other party could opt for arbitration only.

Observations by Pekka Puhakka & Johan Pråbl and Karl-Johan Dhunér

Final Arbitral Award rendered in 2003 in SCC case 24/2002 165

Subject-Matters:

- (1) The potential res judicata effect of the SCC Institute’s dismissal of Respondent’s counterclaim, after the counterclaim had been raised as part of an initial reply to the SCC Institute, but before the referral of the case to the Sole Arbitrator.
- (2) The proper law of the arbitration agreement, where the parties expressly chose to apply English law to the substantive contract, but did not make an express choice of law in respect of the arbitration agreement, and the seat of the arbitration proceedings was Sweden.
- (3) Whether the requirement of “mutual consultations” in the arbitration agreement was a condition precedent to the jurisdiction of the Arbitrator, or a contractual provision to be considered as part of the substantive arbitration proceedings, and whether the condition had been satisfied.

Observations by Mary O’Connor and John Gatenby & Kate Menin

Final Arbitral Award rendered in 2003 in SCC case 71/2002 191

Subject-Matters:

- (1) Letter of credit — whether the paying bank is entitled to refuse to release the money when the documents presented by the seller contain some discrepancies with the conditions in the letter of credit.
- (2) Letter of credit — in case the issuing bank does ask

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- for a waiver of discrepancies from the buyer, whether the buyer is obliged to give a waiver.
- (3) Buyer's obligation to take delivery and make payment — after the expiry of the letter of credit.
  - (4) Evidence — whether Claimant can submit new evidence during the final hearing on the ground that it is a resident outside Europe and there are sometimes difficulties with the communications.

Observations by Christina Ramberg and Liu Ping
