

THE AMERICAN REVIEW
OF
INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

Vol. XXX – 2019

This issue comprises papers that were presented during the joint Colloquium on Bilateral Investment Treaties offered by Columbia Law School and the Columbia School of International and Public Affairs in the fall of 2018. The joint Colloquium was organized by Merit E. Janow, Dean of the Columbia School of International and Public Affairs (SIPA), Petros C. Mavroidis, Edwin B. Parker Professor at Columbia Law School, and Damien J. Neven, Professor of Economics at The Graduate Institute, Geneva.

New York

2019

THE AMERICAN REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

Vol. 30

2019

No. 1

ARTICLES

INTRODUCTION: PROTECTING AND ADJUDICATING INVESTMENT —TRANSCENDING THE OBVIOUS	Merit E. Janow Petros C. Mavroidis and Damien J. Neven	1
ECONOMIC ASPECTS OF INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT AGREEMENTS	Henrik Horn and Pehr-Johan Norbäck	11
BALANCING PRIVATE RIGHTS AND PUBLIC ORDER IN INVESTOR-STATE ARBITRATION: THE PCA EXPERIENCE	Brooks W. Daly	35
EXAMINING NEW APPROACHES TO THE INTERPRETATION OF MFN CLAUSES IN INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT AGREEMENTS	Jeremy R. Stewart	67
FAIR AND EQUITABLE TREATMENT AS BOILERPLATE	Michael Waibel	85
PROMOTING SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT IN BITS: THE EU EXPERIENCE	Ramon Vidal Puig	113
CFIUS REFORMS IN CONTEXT: CHINA IN THE CROSSHAIRS OF CFIUS	Zhu (Judy) Wang	145

*A cumulative table of contents for Volume 30 will appear at the back of the final issue of the year.

