

ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS

Desmond Ang

Mr. Ang is a Partner of Sidley Austin LLP and Member of the firm's Global Arbitration, Trade and Advocacy practice and of the Litigation and Regulatory group. Mr. Ang focuses on international commercial litigation and arbitration, with an emphasis on high-stakes disputes involving business relationships and investments with companies in China, Japan and South Korea. He has represented clients in proceedings conducted under ICC, HKIAC, SIAC, CIETAC, JCAA, ICDR and UNCITRAL arbitration rules. He has experience in disputes involving mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, general corporate issues and private equity, which have been heard in Hong Kong, Singapore, Beijing, Tokyo, California and Switzerland. Mr. Ang also serves as an arbitrator, having been appointed by both the ICC and the HKIAC. He has also developed a regulatory practice focused on counseling hedge funds and corporations in financial services regulatory matters before the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Commission (SFC) and in internal investigations. He is fluent in English, Mandarin Chinese and Cantonese.

Calvin Chan

Mr. Chan is a Partner in Reed Smith's Singapore office. He is one of very few practitioners who has been repeatedly recognized by pre-eminent legal directories for his expertise in two distinct practice areas: internal investigations, and international arbitration (and related litigation). While based in Singapore for the past nine years, he previously practiced for many years in New York, London and Hong Kong at two other leading international law firms. He also worked for a prominent international arbitrator, Jan Paulsson, in Paris. He is a member of the New York state and federal bars, as well as an English solicitor and (non-practicing) advocate and solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore. Mr. Chan leads a specialist cross-border anti-corruption and fraud investigations team that covers the Asia-Pacific region, and which comprises dedicated attorneys and professionals based in Singapore, Shanghai, and Hong Kong. Mr. Chan has also been recognized as a leading international arbitration lawyers and has handled arbitrations under many arbitration rules including the AAA/ICDR, ICC, LCIA, HKIAC, UNCITRAL and ICSID. Additionally, he has significant experience handling complex multi-jurisdictional litigation, as well as U.S. litigation matters involving Asia (including depositions and complex discovery issues).

DISPUTE RESOLUTION IN CHINA

Manjiao Chi

Mr. Chi is a Professor of International Law at Xiamen University's Law School in China, Deputy Secretary-General of the Administrative Council, Xiamen Academy of International Law, and Visiting Professor at European Institute, Saarbruecken University in Germany. He is also is Council member of the Chinese Society of International law and a member of the ILA Committee of International Rule of Law and International Investment Law. His major research fields include international and comparative arbitration, WTO law, investment law and public international law. He publishes extensively in these fields and is the author of Study on Major Legal Issues of Multi-Party and Multi-Contract Arbitration, the first book on complex arbitration in Chinese. In addition to academic activities, Mr. Chi worked for the Ministry of Commerce of the P.R.C., handling and counselling China's WTO and investment cases and legislative work. He has also served as arbitrator or counsel in various foreign-related arbitration cases and is on the panel list of Xiamen Arbitration Commission. Mr. Chi received his Ph.D of Law from Law School, Xiamen University and was visiting fellow in Max-Planck Institute of Comparative Public Law and International Law, Columbia Law School and UNIDROIT.

John Choong

Mr. Choong is a Partner with Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer's Dispute Resolution Group, based in the Hong Kong office. He specialises in international arbitration, cross-border investigations and other dispute resolution matters with an Asia focus. He has represented clients on a wide range of international commercial and investment arbitrations, including a number of complex billion-dollar arbitrations. John has also handled numerous investigations and regulatory/ compliance matters, including a number of sensitive, high-profile matters that have resulted in successful resolutions. John is a Fellow of the UK Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, and sits on a number of arbitration committees and organisations. Mr. Choong is listed as a leading individual for dispute resolution in Chambers Global, and is admitted in Hong Kong, England & Wales and Singapore. He is author or Editor of books published by Oxford University Press and Sweet & Maxwell, and is also a General

ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS

Arbitration Editor of the Hong Kong White Book. Mr. Choong is an adjunct professor with The University of Hong Kong LLM in Arb course.

Elodie Dulac

Elodie Dulac is a Partner in King & Spalding's Singapore office and a Member of the firm's International Arbitration group. She is admitted to practice in England & Wales and Paris, France. She has represented clients in commercial and investment arbitrations around the world, with a particular focus on Asia where she has been based for 13 years. Elodie has been appointed as an arbitrator in ICC, SIAC, AIAC, KIAC and ad hoc arbitrations. She has particular expertise in investment treaty arbitration and international investment law, having acted in over 15 investment treaty disputes. Elodie holds a Master of Laws from the Université Paris I—Panthéon Sorbonne, and a LLM from the University of London, King's College. She is recommended for arbitration in Chambers Asia-Pacific 2019 and Who's Who Legal 2020: Future Leaders (Top 10 Asia-Pacific wide).

Jia (Jessica) Fei

Ms. Fei is a Partner at King & Wood Mallesons in China, and is joint Global Head of international arbitration practice of the firm. Before joining KWM she practiced with leading international law firms for many years. She is an international arbitration and dispute resolution specialist and has extensive experience in representing Chinese and international clients in arbitrations under the following arbitration rules: CIETAC, SIAC, HKIAC, ICC, SCC, LCIA, ICDR and UNCITRAL. Ms. Fei covers disputes work concerning energy, construction, trade and international investment. She is qualified in the PRC and New York. She has worked at the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC) in Beijing and the ICDR (International Centre for Dispute Resolution) of AAA in New York as a research fellow and case administrator. She is also listed on the international panel of arbitrators for SIAC, ICDR, CIETAC, HKIAC, AIAC, and CEAC etc. Ms. Fei is a member of SIAC Court, and a member of ICDR International Advisory Board among others. She has contributed a number of articles on arbitration and is a frequent speaker on topics related to international arbitration. She is a native Mandarin speaker, fluent in English and proficient in French.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION IN CHINA

Jia Lin Hoe

Jia Lin Hoe is a Senior Associate in King & Spalding's Singapore office and a member of the firm's International Arbitration group. As well as working in Singapore, Jia Lin has previously practiced international arbitration in Paris and London. She has experience in a range of commercial and investment treaty arbitrations under the ICC, HKIAC, SIAC, ICSID and UNCITRAL Rules. She is admitted to practice in England & Wales, New York and Singapore.

Xin Liu

Xin Liu is a Senior Associate at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer in Hong Kong. Mr. Liu is qualified in both New York and China. He has helped international clients manage risks and disputes, with a focus on China-related matters. Mr. Liu specializes in international arbitration, cross-border litigation, investigation, and anti-bribery compliance. He has acted in a wide range of cross-border disputes involving governments, state-owned enterprises, and multinational corporations, including litigation in various jurisdictions and arbitration before the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC), Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC), China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC), and Shanghai International Arbitration Center (SHIAC), as well as ad hoc arbitrations under UNCITRAL rules. Mr. Liu has been working at Freshfields since 2013, including spending a year in its New York office and previously worked at the World Bank (Washington D.C.) and a leading Chinese law firm (Beijing). He studied in the U.S. (Harvard Law School), China (Renmin University), Finland (Helsinki University), and Hong Kong (City University).

Xiaomao Min

Xiaomao Min is an Associate in King & Spalding's Singapore office and a member of the firm's International Arbitration Group. Xiaomao has experience in a range of commercial arbitrations under the ICC, HKIAC, SIAC and ICSID Rules. She has also acted as tribunal secretary. Prior to joining King & Spalding, Xiaomao worked as Counsel at the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC) where she was involved in the administration of over 200 SIAC arbitrations. She is a Chinese national and admitted to practice in China.

ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS

Meg Utterback

Ms. Utterback is a Disputes and Compliance Partner in the King & Wood Mallesons New York office. She has represented U.S., European and Chinese companies in arbitration cases in venues around the world including the International Chamber of Commerce, the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission and the Indian Council of Arbitration. She has also represented firms in litigation before U.S. courts in construction and commercial disputes, and counseled Chinese companies and their management on their rights in U.S. litigation. Ms. Utterback has represented clients in commercial disputes, joint venture disputes, and construction matters. She works to create viable solutions for her clients by considering how business objectives influence litigation strategy and how a litigation strategy may require a multi-planed approach. She helps her clients navigate the difficulties of cross-border and cross-cultural communication, particularly as it relates to doing business in China. Ms. Utterback joined King & Wood in 2010 prior to which she was a managing partner at a U.S. firm's Shanghai office and a leading partner with their international dispute resolution practice. She is licensed to practice in the District of Columbia, Maryland, and the Commonwealth of Virginia and is a registered foreign lawyer in China.

Friven Yeoh

Mr. Yeoh is a Partner of Sidley Austin LLP and Co-leader of the firm's Global Arbitration, Trade and Advocacy practice and a member of the Litigation and Regulatory group. He is admitted to practice in Hong Kong, England & Wales, and Victoria, Australia. Mr. Yeoh has extensive experience in the resolution of complex business disputes and has represented clients in international arbitration conducted under various institutional and ad hoc arbitration rules including those of the ICC, HKIAC, CIETAC, SIAC, JCAA, SCC, UNCITRAL and CAS. He has also represented clients in a variety of commercial litigation and regulatory investigations involving product risk and liability, energy, corporate affairs, competition, and financial services matters. Friven also serves as an arbitrator in international arbitration. Mr. Yeoh is recognized as a leading individual in International Arbitration by Chambers Global and the Asia Pacific Legal 500. He is a member of the Advisory Board of the Journal of International Arbitration and has written on a number of topics relating to dispute resolution in China and Hong Kong. He is fluent in English, Mandarin and Cantonese.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION IN CHINA

Peter Yuen

Mr. Yuen is a Partner with Fangda Partners and is Head of the firm's dispute resolution practise in Hong Kong. His practice spans a number of areas including international and regional arbitration, China-related commercial arbitration and complex commercial litigation. Peter regularly acts for clients in complex commercial disputes before the Hong Kong courts, and is experienced in acting as coordinating counsel in cross-border multi-jurisdictional disputes, particularly in matters involving court proceedings in China. He has also established a busy practice in the area of regulatory and corporate compliance, and has conducted a considerable number of corporate internal investigations in Hong Kong and China. Mr. Yuen is ranked as a Leading Individual for International Arbitration in Chambers Asia and has been recognised in the Global Arbitration Review Who's Who since 2010. He is also a member of the Board of the Institute for Transnational Arbitration. Mr. Yuen publishes regularly in a number of leading arbitration and dispute resolution journals. He is also a contributing editor of the Hong Kong White Book. Before studying law in England, Mr. Yuen read chemistry at Oxford University, and was a teaching fellow at Cornell University. He is a qualified as a solicitor in England & Wales and in Hong Kong.