DISPUTE RESOLUTION JOURNAL

Web Site

The Dispute Resolution Journal (DRJ) is available through its Publisher, JurisNet, LLC at arbitrationlaw.com/journals.

Submission of Manuscripts

The American Arbitration Association actively seeks articles of high quality addressing current issues in dispute resolution. For article contributions, please e-mail your submission to Ted Pons, Vice President of Publications & ADR Resources/AAA Education Services, American Arbitration Association, at PonsT@adr.org.

Manuscript submissions should be accompanied by an assurance that the article has not been previously published or accepted elsewhere or an explanation as to how this submission differs from that previously published (e.g., entails an excerpt from a previous publication or includes material not previously included). In circumstances where the article was published elsewhere, the appropriate permissions to reprint must be obtained by the author prior to submission.

Subscriptions

A subscription to the Dispute Resolution Journal comprises four (4) issues per year. Subscription rates can be obtained and registration completed through Juris, at subscriptions@arbitrationlaw.com or arbitrationlaw.com/journals. An online subscription to DRJ contains complete archival access to over 50 years of in-depth articles by leading practitioners and scholars cover the spectrum of ADR issues, emerging techniques and new applications of ADR processes in commercial and labor practice. Contributors are the foremost experts in areas such as international trade, business, commercial finance, labor relations, construction, the courts, insurance, employment, real estate, intellectual property, health care, computers and high tech.
