SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS

The Journal of Damages in International Arbitration actively seeks articles, comments and case notes of high quality addressing current issues involving damages in international arbitration, from either a commercial or investment perspective. Manuscripts should be submitted to the Editors in Chief, accompanied by an assurance that the article has not been previously published or accepted elsewhere, or an explanation as to how this submission differs from that previously published (e.g., entails an excerpt from a previous publication or includes material not previously included).

Authors are requested to submit all manuscripts by email correspondence to the Editors in Chief at jamessearby@me.com, CMiles@KSLAW.com, and irmgard.marboe@univie.ac.at. No hard copy is required. Manuscripts must be in a recent version of Word (doc.x preferred) and range from 15-30 pages in length, with 1.5 line spacing. For further specifications, please contact the Editors in Chief to request JDIA's style sheet.
